DISCUSSIONS OVER COFFEE

Presented by Rondebosch Boys' High School's Counselling Department, these meetings allow parents to come together and explore topics relevant to their sons' development and their roles as parents in guiding this process.

The discussions over a cup of coffee (or tea) will be facilitated by Austin Smith (Clinical Psychologist).

“What's going on with my son?”

So much is happening in your sons' life so let's discuss some of the main challenges they need to face and what you as parents need to do to help guide them through it.

Parents of all grades are invited to join Austin Smith (Clinical Psychologist) for coffee and to take part in an informal discussion related to this topic.

Date: Thursday, 23 May 2019

Time: 08:00 - 09:30

We are aware that the time might not be convenient for many parents therefore notes from the discussion will be made available.

Venue: RBHS | Murison Commons - coffee and tea will be provided.
